Valio Center

Turku, Läntinen Pitkäkatu 21-23

Opportunities near Turku city center

Located close to Turku city center, right next to the main railway station and Logomo cultural center, Valio Center offers flexible premises and opportunities for various businesses. This property combines the pulse of the city, comprehensive services, and an excellent location – an ideal spot for business operations!

Premises and features

Valio Center provides retail, office, and storage spaces. Built between 1934 and 1958, the property offers adaptable premises that can be tailored to your needs. The building is technically sound and combines modern solutions with historical character. Valio Center originally served as Valio's dairy production and office facility – the name carries a piece of history.

Area

The property is situated in a lively area where business, culture, and services meet. Nearby you'll find a wide range of restaurants, cafés, shops, and cultural venues, making everyday life convenient and attractive for employees and customers. Logomo, a major cultural hub, is right next door, and Turku Market Square is within walking distance.

Accessibility

The location ensures easy access in all directions – on foot, by bike, or by car. Turku Market Square, the railway station, and the bus terminal are all within 600 meters. Ample parking is available on-site and along the street, with additional spaces in the adjacent P-Louhi parking facility.
